

Pilgrim Village Families Sketch: John Beaven

By Robert Charles Anderson

Birth: There is no information on John Beaven's date or place of birth.

Death: There is no information on his date or place of death.

Ship: Unknown

Life in England: There is no information of his life in England.

Life in New England: John Beaven appeared only once in the Plymouth Colony records. On July 25, 1633, he contracted with John Winslow to serve him for six years "in the nature of an apprentice." At the end of his term, he was to receive 12 bushels of Indian corn and twenty-five acres of unmanured land. There is no further record.

Family: There is no evidence that John Beaven ever married or had children.